

WUNAN FACT SHEET

Money Management & Home Ownership

Wunan provides a range of money management and home ownership programs aim to provide Aboriginal people with pathways to financial independence and home ownership so that they can build a positive future for themselves.

Indigenous Money Mentor

The Indigenous Money Mentor delivers financial literacy education to improve the financial wellbeing of clients, including providing assistance to tenants in:-

- Budgeting
- Adopting preventative strategies
- Financial literacy education using culturally appropriate materials and teaching techniques
- Accessing NILS microfinance products

Wunan's Indigenous Money Mentor can also help identify barriers to people reaching financial independence and act as an advocate for Transitional Housing Program participants

Financial Capability Services

Financial Capability Services help Aboriginal people to develop longer-term capacity to budget and manage money.

Our Financial Capability workers deliver financial literacy education and support, including community workshops, information and coaching, one-on-one budgeting assistance, and providing support to clients every step of the way.

Pathway to Home Ownership

Wunan's Pathway to Home Ownership Program caters to Indigenous people looking to purchase or build their own home. The Indigenous Home Ownership Education (IHOME) package, designed by DSS and Indigenous Business Australia, is provided in conjunction with financial literacy education to improve financial capacity and encourage greater self-reliance, assisting people to build assets, develop savings and commence on the pathway to financial inclusion.

The Pathway to Home Ownership Program has assisted clients in Wyndham, Kununurra and Halls Creek purchase their own homes.
