2020 AWARD DESCRIPTIONS

1. Aboriginal Junior Person of Year

This award recognises an individual who has demonstrated leadership and is a positive role model to others. This person is active within the community on all levels – family, community service and development, heritage and culture and personal goal achievement. Engagement with the wider community has been achieved through leadership in committees, peer assistance, sporting activities and volunteer work, professional and personal development. This award is open to nominees up to 17 years of age.

2. Aboriginal Elder of the year

This award recognises an Elder, either male or female, who is inspirational to others as a 'life-time' role model. This person is a leader and active member of the community across many levels – family, community service and development, heritage and culture and personal goal achievement.

3. Outstanding Aboriginal Individual Contribution to Family/Community Life

This award recognises an individual care-giver or a volunteer whose positive efforts have benefited extended family and/or other individuals or organisations in the community. It acknowledges individuals who consistently put the well-being of others before themselves and provide support and encouragement to promote positive family/community life. This award is open to nominees aged 18 years and over.

4. Outstanding Aboriginal Individual Cultural Achievement

This award acknowledges an individual's cultural leadership including language, music, dance, land, art and heritage. To be eligible for this category, the East Kimberley must be the nominee's principle place of residence. This award is open to nominees aged 18 years and over.

5. Outstanding Aboriginal / Non - Aboriginal Individual Contribution to Aboriginal Education

Students, teachers, education support professionals or individuals are encouraged to nominate an outstanding person who has made a significant contribution to the education of Aboriginal people in the East Kimberley. The winner may be a teacher, an Aboriginal Education Officer (AEO), a mentor, or a person in any other education-focused role whose enthusiasm and commitment has had a positive impact on improving educational opportunities and outcomes for Aboriginal people.

6. Outstanding Contribution to Aboriginal Employment & Training (Aboriginal / Non - Aboriginal Individual / Organisation)

This award recognises the important role of service organisations that work together to deliver innovative and effective skills development and/or employment support for Aboriginal employees and their employers. This award is focused on organisations bringing new ideas, improved opportunities and real results for Aboriginal people in the East Kimberley.

7. Aboriginal Employee of the Year

Employers are encouraged to nominate an outstanding employee or colleague who has made a significant contribution to their organisations success. The winner will be an employee or colleague who has excelled in all areas, who is dynamic, customer focused, enthusiastic and committed.

8. Aboriginal Organisation of the Year - Not for Profit

This award recognises the good governance and leadership of an Aboriginal organisation in the East Kimberley that continuously facilitates and/or delivers the right services to the right people at the right time.
